FALL OPENING

Fall Opening Sale Week.

Your Souvenir will be a Ten per cent discount on each cash purchase of one dollar or more

Starting Monday, September 21st

Instead of having an Opening Day to exhibit Men's and Boys' New Fall Fashion* We are going to give an OPENING WEEK SALE.

This Opening Week Sale will mean more to you than it is possible from one or more Opening Days. It means this: That on each cash purchase of one dollar or more you will be given a Ten Per cent discount.

A 6 Day Chance to Save 10 per cent. on Your Fall Suit, etc.

This Combination Sale and Opening Week makes it well worth while to buy your Fall Suit, Overcoat and Furnishings early, saving you from $1.35 to $2.50 on Men's suits and $5c to $1.30 on Boys and allowing you the advantage of better assortments as well.

We include everything in this sale except custom-made clothes, Dunlap hats, E. & W. Shirts and collars, Dr. Jaeger's and Dr. Deime's Underwear. Make a mental note of the day this Opening Sale begins and that it lasts only six days.

August time tells on the nerves. But that spiritless, no ambition feeling can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Within 48 hours after beginning to use the Restorative, improvement will be noticed. Of course full health will not immediately return. The gain, however, will surely follow. And best of all, you will realize and feel your strength and ambition as it is returning. Outside influences depress first the "inside nerves" then the stomach, heart, and kidneys will usually fail. Strength on these failing nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly health will be yours again. Sold by all dealers.

SPECTACLES.

Conley's Store, Louisa, Ky., carries in stock spectacles of all grades from 25c a pair up. We have nose glasses, riding and temple bow spectacles, rimless and regular styles, steel, aluminum, nickel, gold filled and solid gold frames. We also have the most perfect lenses made.

We can fit any ordinary case of defective vision, and we make no charge for the work of fitting. If your case is at all complicated we will direct you to reliable opticians or oculists who can properly handle the case. It cannot be done in Louisa. A real optician, one who is educated and skilled in optics, one of the most delicate sciences. There are more fakirs in this line than in almost any other business and the damage they do to man's most important faculty and to his pocket-book at the same time is astounding. Beware of the faking ignoramus who claims to be a competent optician.

Buy your spectacles at CONLEY'S STORE.

Ulysses.

On August 31st, Millard Castle arrived here with his little son Teddie, who died of diphtheria at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Marion Castle, of Cincinnati. Mrs. Castle accompanied her little nephew's remains back here, where they laid him to rest September 1st. The burial services were conducted by Rev. Mill Allen. Mr. Castle returned to Cincinnati to the home of his sister-in-law, last Saturday, who had charge of his only surviving child. A little girl six years old.

Sunday morning, Sept. 6, Mrs. Gustie Allen, of this place departed this place for the one far beyond. She has been very low with consumption for quite a while. She is survived by her husband Frank Allen and a little daughter about four years old, and a son about two-and-half years old. She was the daughter of Frank Brown, of Paintsville, and came here the bride of Mr. Frank Allen, perhaps five years ago. She has made many friends since she came here and will be sadly missed. She was taken back to her old home at Dayville for burial.

The death angel has certainly swept through this neighborhood with its relentless hand during the last week, for the passing of Aunt Mary Miller, Sept. 7, is the third victim of the grim monster during the last week. Aunt Mary, as she was called, has long been suffering with dropsy and this morning, Sept. 7, closed her eyes to the scenes of earth and suffering. The deceased was near 70 years of age. Her funeral was preached by Rev. Albert Miller, after which she was laid to rest beside her late husband, Rev. Mark Miller.

Ped Borders is seriously ill at this time with rheumatism. Arthur Travis, son of Jonathan Travis, has pneumonia.

The funeral of Mrs. Sena Davis, will be preached at her old home Oct. 4.

Mrs. Martha Beasley went to Huntington one day last week.

A Farm Wanted.

I have an inquiry for a good farm having a comfortable residence and good orchard on it. Would prefer quality rather than quantity. Those having farms for sale will do well to write me at once, giving full description, price, number of acres level, kind of house, and all particulars that would interest a buyer. Prefer a place within easy reach of Louisa.

Hon. F. P. James, Auditor, is indignant over the gross graft of some ex-officials of Pike county. A comparison of the records of Pike County Clerks office and the Auditor's records at Frankfort, discloses the startling fact that the State and county has been swindled out of several thousand dollars.

The graft and embezzlement of one ex-sheriff of Pike county for the year of 1889 alone amounted to $1291.58.

Besides this sheriffs and clerks of Pike have collected hundreds of dollars from tax-payers that the Auditor's office has never seen. Auditor James is now prosecuting a campaign all over the State against official thieves and embezzlers.—Pike County Republican.

Marvin.

Married, recently, Neman Burton to Miss Sadie Sexton. Mr. Burton is the son of A. J. Burton, of this place, and Miss Sadie is the attractive daughter of Walter Sexton. The wedding took place at the home of the bride Saturday evening, Sept. 5, Rev. Cassidy officiating.

Miss Madge Rice, of Bear creek, was called home Sunday from Mart Thompsons on account of the accident of her little brother falling from an apple tree and breaking both arms.

Rev. Cassidy preached an interesting sermon at Oliveville Sunday evening.

Born, to Hiram Compton and wife a fine girl.

Mrs. Susan Moore is visiting her daughter in Virginia.

Miss Alkie Wheeler attended church at Oliveville Sunday evening.

Dr. Wheeler and family have moved to Marvin.

Levi Kitchen, who has had typhoid fever is about able to be out again.

Dennis Cooksey was in Louisa Sunday.

Jay Browning and wife were at Marvin one day last week.

Fred Thompson is our hustling mail carrier.

Mrs. James Carter of Morgantown was visiting her daughter here last week.

Henry Houck and family of near Ashland passed here Monday on their way home from a visit to relatives at Overda.

Another wedding took place Sunday evening at the home of Charles Rice. The parties were Hilda Adams, son of J. C. Adams, of Polly's Chapel, and Belvia Arrington, daughter of Jake Arrington.

We wish them happiness and prosperity.

Lindsay Webb and others are getting a telephone line through from Marvin to Overda.

Mrs. J. C. Adams was visiting Mrs. W. S. Pennington, Monday.

Mrs. Rachel Marcum has returned home.

Miss Viola Cooksey was the guest of her aunt, Lillie Cooksey, Sunday.

LOT FOR SALE.

Desirable lot on Lock Avenue, 60x80 feet. For particulars inquire at this office.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

The Greenup Association of Baptists met Wednesday with Elizabeth Jarrell Church, two miles west of Louisa, in Lawrence county.

The Annual meeting of the Christian Churches of Bath and Menifee counties, will be held at Olympia, beginning on the 11th, of September and continuing over the 13th.

Covington, Ky., Sept. 8.—The Kanawha Shoe Company, of Charleston, W. Va., and other creditors filed a petition to have H. C. Stephens, of Goodloe, Floyd county, Ky., declared a bankrupt.

The 14th annual session of the State Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, of Kentucky, convened in Ashland Wednesday for a three days' session.

The Louisa Lodge was largely represented.

The residence of C. C. Maddix, on Scott Point on Mill Street, was consumed by fire at 10:45 o'clock Wednesday morning. Everything in the house was lost, nothing saved—no insurance.—Olive Hill Times.

Olive Hill, Ky., Sept. 6.—The mangled remains of Arthur Boggs, of near here, were found on the railroad track at E. K. Junction this morning. Some suspect that he was murdered and his body placed on the track.

Seneca X. Swinme, having entered a new field of labor, is no longer connected with this office in any way, says the Pikeville Republican. Mr. Swinme starts on his road leewardward next Monday, that is, he has turned preacher—the noblest of callings.—Exchange.

Ironton, O., Sept. 7.—"I followed mother home" were the only words spoken by Herschel Massie, a well-known young clothing clerk, as he staggered into his mother's home dying. Massie had been working at Huntington, where he took sick on Saturday. He died of pneumonia after reaching home.

Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. Levina Davis, wife of Joseph Davis, died at her home near Meek Station, Johnson county, from the infirmities of old age. Mrs. Davis was quite well known here, and both sister-in-law and aunt of Rev. Z. Meek. She belonged to one of the most prominent families in the Sandy Valley.

Deputy Collector G. W. Castle captured El Johnson, who shot to death his brother-in-law, Jake Harper, some weeks ago, and Tom Waggoner, charged with being an accessory, Saturday at the home of Charles Hogg at Gates station and turned them over to the sheriff at Sandy Hook and will, no doubt, get the reward of $700 offered for their capture.—Bugle-Herald.

Word was received here of a peculiar killing at Nausgattuck, Va., Saturday evening. A constable named Hatfield attempted to arrest a negro for some trivial offense and when the negro resisted struck him on the temple with his fist. The negro's eye almost popped out of his head and he dropped dead at the officer's feet. No charge has been filed against Hatfield and none is expected.—Cattlettsburg Tribune.

Frankfort, Ky., September 5.—United States Marshal W. M. Myer, who arrived here to night with five alleged moonshiners to await action of the Federal Court told of the destruction of three of the most notorious illicit stills in the Kentucky mountains.

He located the stills on Quick-sand Creek, on the border line between Breathitt and Knott counties, and caught the shiners in the act of making whiskey. He destroyed 3,000 gallons of beer. He destroyed

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular stomach remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, it once brought that nervous favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

connecting 17 others with the sale of illicit brew was secured. Marshal May says several of them are young girls who export and smuggle saline whiskey.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 7.—The body of John M. Sears, of Ashland, Ky., was washed ashore at Hermosa beach this morning and authorities are trying to find out how the man came to his death. Nothing on the body indicates whether Sears committed suicide, was the victim of violence or of an accident. No money was found in his pockets, although he is said to have been in prosperous circumstances for some time and was there to recuperate.

It was his custom to go out fishing alone in a boat and friends believe he was upset by the swell from a passing steamer. An effort is being made to communicate with his relatives in Ashland. He was planning to return to Ashland within a few days.

The Graham Bros., who bought of J. T. Day a large tract of oak timber above Lee City last fall, are erecting two of the largest mills ever seen in the mountains to put their product in market. Their system of working is much like the pork slaughter house which a countryman described by saying: "Nothing gets away but the squeal of the pig," as Graham Bros. use every scrap 1x6 inches in making parts for toys. They make chair rungs, backs, rockers, etc., but the main business is wagon parts, such as fellows, plow beams, stocks, etc. The force employed to work this up is necessarily large, and to provide homes for the people employed many houses will be built in addition to their mills and store.—Hazel Green Herald.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—When the local freight train, which runs from Ashland to this city, arrived in the yards here this morning the engineer found the hand and arm of a negro sticking on the front of his locomotive.

As far as he knew there had been no accident during the run from Ashland and he was at a loss to account for the presence of the gruesome decorations on the engine. Messages were at once sent up the road and it was learned that the train had last night run over and killed Sam Haines, a negro, about half a mile beyond Winchester, the arm and hand were torn off the body and carried to this point by the engine. The bloody fragments were sent to Winchester to be buried with the rest of the corpse.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 3.—William Fife was instantly killed and William Alexandria was fatally injured by the premature explosion of a blast in a stone quarry at Olive Hill, fifty miles east of here. The men had set two blasts. One went off all right but the other failed, and several minutes later Fife and Alexandria went to investigate. Fife stopped and began cleaning the blast hole, when suddenly the powder exploded, hurling him fifteen feet in the air and terribly mangled him. Alexandria was also badly mangled and there is little chance for his recovery.

"Charles J. Howes and wife, Frankfort, Ky., this on the Ventura Hotel register last night, coupled with the proud exclamation, 'that's the first time I ever wrote that,' broke the news to Ashland and Eastern Kentucky friends that popular and talented, genial Charles Howes, of Paintsville, recent unsuccessful candidate for the Tenth District Democratic Congressional nomination, had nevertheless been elected.

Undaunted by the action of the Democratic convention which nominated the Hon. Amos Davis to run against Congressman John W. Langley, Mr. Howes pursued his canvass along other lines with more success, and Tuesday afternoon, when the returns were in, it was learned that Chas. J. Howes, was unanimously elected, the one vote being cast by Mrs. Blanche Hill Cavanaugh, the talented daughter of the late W. S. B. Hill, for years Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.—Ashland Independent.

The Paintsville base ball team went to Ashland and defeated the local club by a score of 8 to 1.

Foreman Joseph Shalkford lost his right hand by getting it caught in a machine at the Park City Lumber mills at Ashland.

Go to Sullivan's for sorghum barrels. I have a nice lot on hand.
